

TOWN OF PITTSFIELD
BOARD OF SELECTMEN
Town Hall, 85 Main Street
Pittsfield, New Hampshire

RELEASE

MAY 1, 2008

The Pittsfield Board of Selectmen and the Pittsfield Economic Development Committee announce the engagement of the Capital Region Development Council (CRDC) to assist the town in advancing economic development activities.

Mr. Stephen Heavener, CRDC Executive Director, will be devoting a portion of his professional workweek to identifying private and public capital resources available that will sustain existing firms and attract new businesses to Pittsfield.

Mr. Heavener, who has 29 years of success in economic and community development in 7 states, will identify 3 to 5 major sites or projects and work to prepare and position the sites for the end user market. He will also research and identify compatible and desired businesses and developers.

Working with local officials and interested citizens Executive Director Heavener will lead the effort to establish marketing and outreach strategy as the town seeks to strengthen local enterprise, increase local employment opportunities and increase the value of the tax base helping to relieve home owners of an increasing tax burden.

Mr. Heavener will have a frequent presence in Pittsfield and invites all who have an interest in economic development issues to contact him by writing his office at CRDC, P.O. Box 664, Concord, NH 03302-0664 or calling 603/228-1872 or using the email address of sheavener@crdc-nh.com.

For additional information contact Mr. Edward Vien, Chair, Pittsfield Economic Development Committee or Leon Kenison, Town Administrator, By telephone 603/435-6773 or fax 603/435-7922.
